

Alone

singing her song
in her own little world nothing really mattered but did anything anymore?

crying in her shadows
not safe or warm wading through despise and horror

the river styx calls
she is swept away
all has been forgotten
but hey

it's just another day
just another way
to die alone
to cry alone
there's just too much
for her to do
it's too late for her and too late for you

go away
go away
Go away and leave me alone..

trapped in the world
of violent dreams
pins 'n needles
poking out her sight

she's gone too far
out of her league
so come rescue her before she dies with me alone is what I wanted

but she's just a child hurt her like this and see..

it's just another day
just another way

to cry alone
for her to see
so please come here
and help me

i need you
i need you
i need you
alone
