

The Babies Song (co-written by Noah Beit-Aharon for Hampshire Orientation)

Now we're going to sing a song about babies, and why they taste so....

GOOD.

saw the recipe on a hampshire frisbee
a great idea for midnight...

FOOD.

Babies, babies:
Ultimate frisbee cheers,
"EAT THE BABIES!"

Babies, babies:
We all love them babies!

Eat them now, before they're gone,
go to the hospital and get yourself one!

B, B:
The hospital gives away free babies.

B, B:
Tasty tasty yummy baby!

Have a baby and you'll feel good,
they taste way better than your offspring should.

B, B:
We all love them babies!

Doesn't matter how much they cry,
They taste really great in a stirfry!

B, B:
We have fun in Greenwich stirfrying babies.

B, B:
We all love to eat babies!

You should try some, it's better than veal,
Slap on some cheese sauce, and you've got a meal!

B, B:
Hell, I've got some, we all can share:

B, B:
Have some now, they're kosher I swear!

B, B:
All the world loves babies!

B, B:
We need babies!

Solo:
C // Csus // Em // Dm // Am // Em // Dm // Am // C // Csus // Em // Em

Want a flattened baby without any frill?
Well, no problem: Just get a George Foreman Grill!

B, B:
Flattened babies make perfect snacks!

B, B:
They won't give you any heart attacks!

Y'know it makes people sad when babies die,
but they're really amazing in a shepherd's pie.

B, B:
Sweeny Todd baked many babies.

B, B:
We all love them babies!

Outside of the nursery, we stood in a mob,
Holding skewers for our baby shish kabob

B, B:
That's what we're having for dinner today.

B, B:
Get me some rum and I'll make a flambé!

Solo:
C // Csus // Dm // Am // C // Csus // Em // Em

There are plenty of books about baby care,
my own recommendation is medium rare.
Though they don't really have to be cooked, you see,
'cause baby sushi is a delicacy!

B, B:
We all love them babies!

B, B:
Pretty pretty squishy yum babies!

Doesn't even matter if you know their mama,
they're better than anything you'll get at SAGA!

B, B:
SAGA needs to use s'more babies!

B, B:
We all love them babies!

And the parents want to know why
We stick their babies in our fry-
-ing pans. we all reply
by giving them some baby meat.
You know it's such a treat,
and now their parents give us all their young.
